

(Today we arrived for the teaching on the backs of large albatrosses. Every single one of us has our own unique bird that takes us on a beautiful journey. We are flying above the Earth, but it feels as if we are flying in a type of altered reality. It is most certainly comfortable but at the same time a bit unusual.) It will be good for you to get accustomed to this surreal feeling. It will be also good for you to get accustomed to the feeling of flying. (Grandmother speaks proudly with a smile in her voice.) We have spoken before about this year, 2010 being the year that you will be able to spread your wings completely and fly with ease and calm. You have adjusted yourself enough to these permanent evolutionary changes so that this Moon you will actually be able to feel and enjoy the good changes that are abounding.

This Moon it will be very important for you to keep your perspective in this heightened place. Change and directness are on your side. By staying up high here in the clouds with the albatross, so to speak, you will be much better able to maneuver your way through the rapid movement that is the pulse of this entire Moon. The calm that has descended upon our Earth and that has infiltrated your own life is here to stay. Even if you do not feel calm, it is here. Spend time adjusting your own energy field to the calm energy that is all around you. It is in your ecosphere, your atmosphere, the air you breathe.

Gone are the days when you can turn your head and look behind you and seek to understand what has gone on in the past. There will little helpful information gained in looking over your shoulder. Adopt a forward-looking posture and keep this heightened perspective. In doing so you will be able to plan and achieve many strong things this Moon. This is an excellent time for materializing your plans. You will feel as if you are walking more on solid ground. This is one of the better times in this entire year to put your plans into concrete, solid motion forward. As such, use your time well and plan with impeccable precision. In many ways, all you have to do is put pen to paper and your "to-do" list will seem to flow it's self out in front of your very own eyes. This is not because there is magic at work, but rather because the energy of all of your years of planning has found its way into the fiber of all things. Your efforts have taken roots. They are incubated and are now ready to be birthed.

In many ways, this will be a wonderful Moon of service service to others. You will not have very much time to be absorbed into yourself. You will find this quite refreshing. You always do better when you are serving others. In the past, perhaps you have done a fair bit of serving of others for reasons that were not fully healthy, but you have learned and you have changed. Now you are in a place of very clear service and hence can march forward very easily. The fussiness and stunned feelings are starting to clear quickly. Things that you have not been able to complete or move forward successfully will finally be able to turn and roll in the right direction. It is a blessed time for all.

Interestingly enough, in all of this, there appears to be some attention come your way that is unexpected. It will be a pleasant surprise. You are not expecting it nor waiting for it, but come it will. Accept and embrace this attention. It will be good for your soul as well as good for your heart. Remember not to inject any poison of "expectation" into the mix and you will do just fine.

Sometimes when we are least expecting it, wonderful things can come our way. (As Grandmother is speaking, we are reminded of the large backs of our piloting albatross that is to be carrying us through this month. Grandmother smiles and we feel her smile inside of our hearts. There is a swell of appreciation toward life that just comes up quite spontaneously from our collective hearts. Again, Grandmother smiles. We feel her approval.) Sometimes just taking a moment to appreciate where you are in all existence can carry you much farther than any other effort, prayer or grandiose planning ever could. Remember your manner and to give thanks this Moon for all of your deep blessings. Enjoy the life you have come to live. Be blessed.
